28 April 1965

The Honorable J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Director:

Thank you very much for your warm note of April 26 on the conclusion of my service as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence.

The relationships between the Bureau and the Agency during the three years of my assignment here have been of the highest order and I am particularly appreciative of the mutual spirit of cooperation between our people that has made my task much easier.

The services performed by [redacted] have been exemplary in all respects and I think our two departments owe much to his outstanding services.

STATINTL

With my thanks again, and the hope that our relationships will continue in this same vein.

Faithfully yours,

/s/
